

Baton Rouge Apartment Association Installs New Directors, Honors Peers

Recently the Baton Rouge Apartment Association, a Baton Rouge-based trade association representing owners, developers, investors, managers and employees of apartment communities and vendors who provide products and services to the industry, recognized members who have exemplified the high principles of the BRAA and its professional goals. The awards are presented annually for the recipient's work that year.

The 2016 recipients were:

Brandi Parrish, Oakleigh Apartments, Sales Team Member of the Year

Eric Stacey, AC Lewis, Maintenance Person of the Year

Ashely Brown, Lakeside Villas, Service Team Member of the Year

Debbie Landry, Rent Path, Supplier of the Year

Nia Bookter, Latitude 30, Manager of the Year, Less Than 150 Units

Lynelle Smith, Ivy Park Apartments, Manager of the Year, More than 150 Units

The awards ceremony was held in conjunction with the installation of the 2017 BRAA Board President, Chandra Giambrone, December 7, 2016 at De La Ronde Hall in Baton Rouge. Apartment Association of Louisiana President Melissa Ardoin swore in the executive team and directors.

Other members of the board of directors return to serve the second of their two year terms in 2016. Those members are:

Secretary/Treasurer for 2017, Brian May, AC Lewis Management
President-Elect for 2017, MacKenzie Sanders, Multifamily Management

President for 2017, Chandra Giambrone, Principal Properties

Directors at large:

Hazel Collins, Padial Real Estate

Brandi Milliet, 1st Lake Properties

Michelle Rabalais, Greystar

Phil Yeates, Yeates & Company

Debbie Landry, RentPath

Kimberly Lagarde , Cort Furniture